Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Proverbs 22:1-2, 8-9, 22-23

A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favour is better than silver or gold. The rich and the poor have this in common: the Lord is the maker of them all.

Whoever sows injustice will reap calamity, and the rod of anger will fail. Those who are generous are blessed, for they share their bread with the poor.

Do not rob the poor because they are poor, or crush the afflicted at the gate; for the Lord pleads their cause and despoils of life those who despoil them.

Psalm 125

David Hurd (after Gibbons)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm

1 Those who trust in the LORD are like ¹Moünt ¹Zion, * which cannot be ¹moved, but stands ¹fast for ¹ever.

2 The hills stand a ¹bout Je ¹rusalem; *
so does the LORD stand round about his people,
from this time ¹forth for ¹ever ¹more.

3 The scepter of the wicked shall not hold sway over the land al ¹lotted to the ¹just, *
so that the just shall not ¹put their ¹hands to ¹evil.

4 Show your goodness, O LORD, to ¹those who are ¹good *
and to ¹those who are ¹true of ¹heart.

† 5 As for those who turn aside to crooked ways,
the LORD will lead them away with the ¹evil ¹doers; *
but ¹peace be up ¹on ¹Israel.

Second Lesson: James 2:1-17

My brothers and sisters, do you with your acts of favoritism really believe in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ? For if a person with gold rings and in fine clothes comes into your assembly, and if a poor person in dirty clothes also comes in, and if you take notice of the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Have a seat here, please," while to the one who is poor you say, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Has not God chosen the poor in the world to be rich in faith and to be heirs of the kingdom that he has promised to those who love him? But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you? Is it not they who drag you into court? Is it not they who blaspheme the excellent name that was invoked over you?

You do well if you really fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." But if you show partiality, you commit sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For

Christe sanctorum

Gospel: Mark 7:24-37

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. For the one who said, "You shall not commit adultery," also said, "You shall not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty. For judgment will be without mercy to anyone who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you? If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and eat your fill," and yet you do not supply their bodily needs, what is the good of that? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened."

And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

St. Hildegard of Bingen

1098–1179

St. Hildegard was the tenth child of a noble German family. She was promised to the church and raised from the time she was eight years old in a hermitage that later became a Benedictine monastery.

From childhood she had mystical visions, which she kept to herself until her teen years. Her writings speak of the divine feminine and the dignity of women. She believed that every woman who gave birth helped clothe God with humanity. She composed music for her nuns to sing and spoke of Christ as God's song. She taught that music recreated the original harmony that once existed between God and humankind, and that the human soul was a musical instrument on which God played music.

She carried out four preaching missions in northern Europe, unprecedented activity for a woman. She practiced medicine, focusing on women's needs; published treatises on natural science and philosophy; wrote a liturgical drama, The Play of the Virtues, in which personified virtues sing their parts and the devil, condemned to live without music, can only speak. For Hildegard, music was essential to worship. Her liturgical compositions, unusual in structure and tonality, were described by contemporaries as "chant of surpassing sweet melody" and "strange and unheard-of music."

Her feast day is September 17.

God of all times and seasons: Give us grace that we, after the example of your servant Hildegard, may both know and make known the joy and jubilation of being part of your creation, and show forth your glory not only with our lips but in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Savior, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Bible Study This Fall

- Open Bible Study: a monthly study
Join Margaret once a month on the second Tuesday at 11am, or the second Wednesday at 7pm, from October to June. This year, we are studying rarely considered letters written by Paul, James, and Peter. Each disciple was reaching out to specific early churches, helping them grow into being mature Christian communities of love, mercy, and justice. Like them, we still practice getting it right. On Tuesday, October 8, at 11am, and Wednesday, October 9, at 7pm, we will meet to study Paul's Letter to Philemon, in the Harvey room and on Zoom (the link will be in the e-pistle).
- Men's Bible Study: a monthly study
Adrian leads this men's Bible study class that meets on Zoom (the link will be in the e-pistle) on the first Saturday of the month from 8 to 9am. The next meeting is on October 5. This year, we are studying the Gospel of Luke.

Coffee Hour Hosts!

Coffee hour is held after every 10am Sunday service and is hosted each week by a volunteer. Imagine how good you will feel after you have helped bring parishioners together to chat, catch up, and reconnect. Hosting is simple: buy some snacks, place them on trays in the parish hall, and clean up. (The sextons make the coffee.) Sign up to host on the sheet hanging outside the parish hall or email Adrian Robbins-Cole or Hillary Madge.

Coventry Suppers

September is sign up time for Coventry suppers. These suppers have been a meaningful tradition for years, providing an opportunity to gather for simple meals at each other's homes. These casual dinners, in which everyone contributes a dish, are especially nice for newcomers, as they allow you to get to know one another in a small, intimate setting (9-12 people).

Please sign up at the parish picnic or by emailing the fellowship or membership vestry person(s) no later than Sunday, October 13 (fellowship@standrewswellesley.org or membership@standrewswellesley.org).

A list of Coventry group members will be distributed shortly thereafter, with a "first convener" assigned to host; the group can then discuss future gatherings. Usually, groups meet four to six times over the year.

Prayer List

Following the summer, we will be refreshing our parish prayer list. We will start with a fresh list on Sunday, October 1. If you have a loved one on the current prayer list and would like them to remain on the list, please email Adrian.

Fall Read: The Awakened Brain

Sarah Robbins-Cole brought The Awakened Brain: The New Science of Spirituality and Our Quest for an Inspired Life, to our adult formation committee's attention; it looks like a great book! Deepak Chopra, MD, said "Dr. Lisa Miller's research heralds a new revolution of health and well-being. The Awakened Brain is an investigation of the choice we each have in confronting challenges and limitations—and it's a testament to, and celebration of, the power within." You can order the book by emailing me and you can pick it up at Wellesley Books. The cost is $24. Make a check out to St. Andrew's with "fall book" in the memo and mail it to Margaret after we confirm the book has been reserved for you. We will have two opportunities to discuss the book together in the fall, the first on Tuesday, September 24, at 6pm Soul Sisters, and the second on Sunday November 17, at 9am adult Christian learning. —Margaret Schwarzer

Blessing of the Animals

Our much-loved Blessing of the Animals service will be at 5pm on Sunday, September 29. The service will take place in the church and pets and animals of all kinds are welcome! We will sing a hymn, say some prayers, and the clergy will come around and individually bless each animal. We will also give thanks for all our pets who have passed away but whose memory we still cherish.

Celebration event for Bishop Gates, our Retiring Bishop

On Sunday, October 6, from 12 to 4pm, there will be a celebration of Bishop Gates's ministry over the last ten years as the Bishop of Massachusetts. The event will take place at the New England Aquarium. Admission to the Aquarium is free for this family friendly event and reception. If you would like to attend, please sign up to book a place. (The link will be in the e-pistle) by Friday, September 20.

Consecration of the New Bishop of Massachusetts

The consecration of our new Bishop, Rev. Julia Whitworth, will take place on Saturday, October 19, at 11am, in Trinity Church, Boston. All are welcome to attend. Seating will be available as capacity allows. Please register on the Diocese of Massachusetts website. (The link will be in the e-pistle.)

Audio/Visual Team

Sharing our beautiful services with the greater world and maintaining contact with our remote congregation depends on the team of volunteers who volunteer each Sunday to operate our in-house video broadcasting system. Volunteers receive training and real-time support in performing this task. If you have any desire to learn more about technology, or already have a background in the technical side of video and sound production and want to lend your talents, then we have a seat for you up front in the first row for operations. Please contact our broadcasting coordinator, Rob Brandt.

Gratitude

Rose Garden Summer Care

A huge thank you to all of you who watered, deadheaded, and weeded our memorial rose garden this summer. It really looks great, and it wouldn't have, had it not been for your care. Now that September is here, I think we can look forward to another period of blooming before fall sets in.
