S 278 Gloria in excelsis (front section of hymnal)

William Mathias (1934-1992)

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,

we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,

you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Proverbs 31:10-31

A capable wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life. She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands. She is like the ships of the merchant, she brings her food from far away. She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household and tasks for her servant-girls. She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard. She girds herself with strength, and makes her arms strong. She perceives that her merchandise is profitable. Her lamp does not go out at night. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle. She opens her hand to the poor, and reaches out her hands to the needy. She is not afraid for her household when it snows, for all her household are clothed in crimson. She makes herself coverings; her clothing is fine linen and purple. Her husband is known in the city gates, taking his seat among the elders of the land. She makes linen garments and sells them; she supplies the merchant with sashes. Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rise up and call her happy; her husband too, and he praises her: "Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all." Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her a share in the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the city gates."

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm

- 1 Happy are they who have not walked in the <sup>1</sup>counsel of the <sup>1</sup>wicked, *
nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor <sup>1</sup>sat in the <sup>1</sup>seats of the <sup>1</sup>scornful!
- 2 Their delight is in the <sup>1</sup>law of the <sup>1</sup>LORD, * and they meditate on his <sup>1</sup>law <sup>1</sup>day and <sup>1</sup>night.
- 3 They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that <sup>1</sup>do not <sup>1</sup>wither; *
— <sup>1</sup>everything they <sup>1</sup>do shall prosper.
- 4 It is not <sup>1</sup>so with the <sup>1</sup>wicked; *
they are like <sup>1</sup>chaff which the <sup>1</sup>wind blows a <sup>1</sup>way.
- 5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when <sup>1</sup>judgment <sup>1</sup>comes, * nor the sinner in the <sup>1</sup>council <sup>1</sup>of the <sup>1</sup>righteous.
- 6 For the LORD knows the <sup>1</sup>way of the <sup>1</sup>righteous, *

Second Lesson: James 3:13-4:3, 7-8a

Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.

Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive,

People      Glory to you, Lord Christ

Jesus and his disciples passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again." But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him. Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they

He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." ## Florence Nightingale

May 12, 1820–August 13, 1910

Florence Nightingale was born in Florence, Italy to British parents. From a very young age, she was active in philanthropy, ministering to the ill and poor people in the village neighboring her family's estate. By the time she was 16, it was clear to her that nursing was her calling. She believed it to be her divine purpose.

Florence was enrolled at the Institution of Protestant Deaconesses at Kaiserswerth in Germany despite family reservations. She then took a nursing job in a hospital for ailing governesses in London. Her performance there so impressed her employer that she was promoted to the superintendent's position within a year. In 1854, she volunteered for duty in the Crimean War and recruited 38 nurses to join her, organizing the first nursing service in British field hospitals. By imposing strict discipline and high standards of sanitation, she radically reduced the death toll and rampant infection then typical in field hospitals. She returned to England in 1856 and a fund of £50,000 was subscribed to enable her to form an institution for the training of nurses at St. Thomas's Hospital and at King's College Hospital. Her school at St. Thomas's Hospital became significant in helping to elevate nursing into a profession. She is honored throughout the world as the founder of the modern profession of nursing.

Her feast day is August 12.

Life-giving God, you alone have power over life and death, over health and sickness: Give power, wisdom, and gentleness to those who follow the lead of Florence Nightingale, that they, bearing with them your presence, may not only heal but bless, and shine as lanterns of hope in the darkest hours of pain and fear; through Jesus Christ, the healer of body and soul, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
