Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Acts 9:1-20

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank. Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, Lord." The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name." But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

- 1 I will exalt you, O LORD,
because you have ¹lifted me ¹up *
and have not let my ¹enemies ¹triumph ¹over me.
- 2 O LORD my God, I cried ¹out to ¹you, *
and ¹you re¹stored me to ¹health.
- 3 You brought me up, O ¹LORD, from the ¹dead; *
you restored my life as I was ¹going ¹down to the ¹grave.
- 4 Sing to the LORD, you ¹servants of ¹his; *
give thanks for the re¹membrance ¹of his ¹holiness.
- 5 For his wrath endures but the ¹twinkling of an ¹eye, *
his ¹favor ¹for a ¹lifetime.
- 6 Weeping may ¹spend the ¹night, *
but ¹jöy ¹comes in the ¹morning.
- 7 While I felt secure, I said,
“I shall ¹never be ¹dis¹turbed. *
You, LORD, with your favor, made me as ¹ströng ¹as the ¹mountains.”
- 8 Then you ¹hid your ¹face, *
and ¹I was ¹filled with ¹fear.
- 9 I cried to ¹you, O ¹LORD; *
I ¹pleaded with the ¹LÖRD, ¹saying,
- 10 “What profit is there in my blood, if I go ¹down to the ¹Pit? *
will the dust ¹praise you or de¹clare your ¹faithfulness?
- 11 Hear, O LORD, and have ¹mercy up¹on me; *
O ¹LÖRD, ¹be my ¹helper.”
- 12 You have turned my ¹wailing into ¹dancing; *
you have put off my ¹sack-cloth and ¹clothed me with ¹joy.
- †13 Therefore my heart sings to ¹you without ¹ceasing; *
O LORD my God, I will ¹give you ¹thanks for ¹ever.

Second Lesson: Revelation 5:11-14

I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!"

Gospel: John 21:1-19

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, "To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!" And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the elders fell down and worshiped.

the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

Florence Nightingale

May 12, 1820–August 13, 1910

Florence Nightingale was born in Florence, Italy to British parents. From a very young age, she was active in philanthropy, ministering to the ill and poor people in the village neighboring her family's estate. By the time she was 16, it was clear to her that nursing was her calling. She believed it to be her divine purpose.

Florence was enrolled at the Institution of Protestant Deaconesses at Kaiserswerth in Germany despite family reservations. She then took a nursing job in a hospital for ailing governesses in London. Her performance there so impressed her employer that she was promoted to the superintendent's position within a year. In 1854, she volunteered for duty in the Crimean War and recruited 38 nurses to join her, organizing the first nursing service in British field hospitals. By imposing strict discipline and high standards of sanitation, she radically reduced the death toll and rampant infection then typical in field hospitals. She returned to England in 1856 and a fund of £50,000 was subscribed to enable her to form an institution for the training of nurses at St. Thomas's Hospital and at King's College Hospital. Her school at St. Thomas's Hospital became significant in helping to elevate nursing into a profession. She is honored throughout the world as the founder of the modern profession of nursing.

Her feast day is August 12.

Life-giving God, you alone have power over life and death, over health and sickness: Give power, wisdom, and gentleness to those who follow the lead of Florence Nightingale, that they, bearing with them your presence, may not only heal but bless, and shine as lanterns of hope in the darkest hours of pain and fear; through Jesus Christ, the healer of body and soul, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Stained-Glass Window Project

Join us today, May 4, at 11:30am in the sanctuary for the unveiling of the design for a new stained-glass window at the Washington Street end of the church.

About 18 months ago, Adrian spoke about a vision for a new stained-glass window. Since then, a group of parishioners has been working with one of America's leading stained glass artists, Lyn Hovey. Lyn trained in the Wilbur H. Burnham Studios where many of St. Andrew's windows were designed. The design has evolved and is now ready, with the support of the vestry, to be presented to the parish. The title of the window is The Emerging Christ. The committee, headed by former warden Will Nystrom, and including our current wardens, is looking forward to the unveiling. The cost of the new window will be largely covered by generous parishioners.
