The Word of God

Opening Acclamation

Book of Common Prayer p. 355

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever.

Celebrant There is one Body and one Spirit;

People There is one hope in God's call to us;

Celebrant One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

People One God and Father of all.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arab—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm.

25 O LORD, how¹ manifold are your¹ works! *

in wisdom you have made them all;
the¹ earth is¹ full of your¹ creatures.

26 Yonder is the great and wide sea
with its living things too¹ many to¹ number, *

27 There move the ships,
and there is¹ that Le¹viathan, *
which¹ you have¹ made for the¹ sport of it.

28 All of them¹ look to¹ you *
to give them their¹ food in¹ due¹ season.

29 You give it to¹ them; they¹ gather it; *
you open your hand, and¹ they are¹ filled with¹ good things

30 You hide your face, and¹ they are¹ terrified; *
you take away their breath,
and they¹ die and re¹turn to their¹ dust.

31 You send forth your Spirit, and¹ they are cre¹ated; *
and so you re¹new the¹ face of the¹ earth.

32 May the glory of the LORD en¹dure for¹ ever; *
may the LORD re¹joice in¹ all his¹ works.

33 He looks at the¹ earth and it¹ trembles; *
he touches the¹ mountains¹ and they¹ smoke.

34 I will sing to the LORD as¹ long as I¹ live; *
I will praise my¹ God while I¹ have my¹ being.

35 May these words of¹ mine¹ please him; *
I will re¹joice¹ in the¹ LORD.

37 Bless the LORD, ¹O my¹ soul. *
—¹ Halle¹lü¹jah!

Second Lesson: Romans 8:14-17

All who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit

Gospel: John 14:8-17, 25-27

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Philip said to Jesus, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid."

Offertory Anthem Listen Sweet Dove

Grayston Ives (b. 1948)

from Whitsunday, a poem by George Herbert (1593-1633)

*Listen sweet dove unto my song
And spread thy golden wings in me;
Hatching my tender heart so long
Till it get wing and flie away with thee.*

*The sunne which once did shine alone,
Hung down his head and wisht for night
When he beheld twelve sunnes for one
Going about the world and giving light.*

*Such glorious gifts thou didst bestow
That the earth did like a heaven appear,
The starres were coming down to know
If they might mend their wages and serve here.*

*Lord though we change thou art the same,
The same sweet God of love and light;
Restore this day for thy great name,
Unto his ancient and miraculous right.*

Doxology Hymn 380 "Praise God from whom all blessings flow"

Old 100th

*Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.*

Icon of the Week

St. Anthony of Padua

1195-1231

St. Anthony was born in Lisbon and baptized Ferdinand. Originally an Augustinian canon, he was inspired by the example of a group of Franciscans martyred in Morocco to join that order in Italy. Under St. Francis, his name was changed to Anthony and, after a failed attempt to seek martyrdom in Morocco, he stayed in Italy to practice his considerable skills as a preacher.

The story of Anthony “preaching to the fish” originated in Rimini, where he had gone to preach. When heretics there treated him with contempt, Anthony was said to have gone to the shoreline, where he began to preach at the water's edge until a great crowd of fish was seen gathered before him. The people of the town flocked to see this marvel, after which Anthony charged them with the fact that the fish were more receptive to his message than the heretics of the church, at which point the people were moved to listen to his message. Anthony was the most celebrated of St. Francis of Assisi's followers and had the reputation of a miracle worker. He won great admiration as a preacher and was noted for his simple yet profound teaching. His sermons were collected into a book called The Sermons of Saint Anthony of Padua. In this icon, he is depicted holding the Christ child and a book to illustrate his knowledge of scripture. He died at the age of 36 enroute to Padua, Italy, where he is buried.

His feast day is June 13.

“The life of the body is the soul; the life of the soul is Christ.”
From The Sermons of Saint Anthony of Padua.

Memorial Rose Garden

We are looking for people who can help keep the Memorial Rose Garden in top shape during June, July, and August. This includes watering, deadheading, and weeding. If you can help any time this summer, please contact Wardie Mannix.

B-SAFE Summer Camp

Summertime means sun, fun, and play.

Here at St. Andrew's, it means B-SAFE: supporting St. Stephen's Youth Programs (SSYP) with their summer enrichment program for elementary-aged kids. We will be hosting this summer camp from July 28 to August 1, providing a nutritious hot lunch three days and arranging a very fun presentation by The Whalemobile! This interactive learning experience will include a 30-foot inflated whale in our parish hall and educational programming to foster a love for whales and the ocean. But we need you to make it a success. View the event on Realm and register to help cook or serve for a couple of hours, or to interact with the kids here. We really appreciate your participation!

Join the Children's Choir!

Children's choir will resume on Thursday, September 4, and we would love you to join us! We learn about music, singing in choir, and Episcopal liturgical music tradition using The Royal School of Church Music (RSCM) curriculum. Children's choir sings during our all parish Eucharists (typically the first Sunday of the month). We rehearse on Thursday evenings from 5 to 5:45pm, followed by an opportunity for food and fellowship. Look for the sign up on Realm in August, or email Benedict Hensley.

- Note: This is for children in grades two to six, but if you have a child outside of this age range who is interested, please contact me.

Garden Tour

Many thanks to the Hunnewell Family for hosting a wonderful garden tour on Tuesday. Parishioners enjoyed a beautiful morning for the informative tour of the Hunnewell Estate grounds with horticulturalist David Dusenbury.

Thank You St. Andrew's Teachers!

Please join us in thanking our church school teachers and youth leaders, all of whom have given their time, attention and love to our church school, Rite-13, and high school students over the course of the year!

Thank you Church School Committee!

Many thanks to all those who served on the church school committee this year!
