Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Jeremiah 32:1-3a, 6-15

The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was confined in the court of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah, where King Zedekiah of Judah had confined him.

Jeremiah said, The word of the Lord came to me: Hanamel son of your uncle Shallum is going to come to you and say, "Buy my field that is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours." Then my cousin Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the Lord, and said to me, "Buy my field that is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself." Then I knew that this was the word of the Lord. And I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver. I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales. Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy; and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard. In their presence I charged Baruch, saying, Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, in order that they may last for a long time. For thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.

Psalm 91:1-6, 14-16

David Hurd (after Gibbons)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm

1 He who dwells in the shelter of the ¹Mōst¹High, * abides under the ¹shadow¹ of the Al¹mighty.

- 2 He shall say to the LORD,
 “You are my ¹refuge and my ¹stronghold, *
 my God in ¹whom I ¹put my ¹trust.”
- 3 He shall deliver you from the ¹snare of the ¹hunter *
 and ¹from the ¹deadly ¹pestilence.
- 4 He shall cover you with his pinions,
 and you shall find refuge ¹under his ¹wings; *
 his faithfulness shall ¹be a ¹shield and ¹buckler.
- 5 You shall not be afraid of any ¹terror by ¹night, *
 nor of the ¹arrow that ¹flies by ¹day;
- 6 Of the plague that ¹stalks in the ¹darkness, *
 nor of the sickness that ¹lāys ¹waste at ¹mid-day.
- 14 Because he is bound to me in love,
 therefore will ¹I de¹liver him; *
 I will protect him, be¹cause he ¹knows my ¹Name.
- 15 He shall call upon me, and ¹I will ¹answer him; *
 I am with him in trouble;
 I will ¹rescue him and ¹bring him to ¹honor.
- † 16 With long ¹life will ¹I ¹satisfy him, *
 and ¹show him ¹my sal¹vation.

Second Lesson: 1 Timothy 6:6-19

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

Gospel: Luke 16:19-31

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man’s table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.’ But Abraham said, ‘Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.’ He said, ‘Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father’s house—for I have five brothers—that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.’ Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.’ He said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Presentation of Bread and Wine

Offertory Anthem Flight Song

Kim André Arnesen (b. 1980)
words by Euan Tait (b.1968)

*All we are, we have found in song:
You have drawn this song from us
Songs of lives unfolding
Fly overhead, cry overhead:
Longing, rising from the song within*

*Moving like the rise and fall of wings
Hands that shape our calling voice
On the edge of answers
You've heard our cry, you've known our cry:
Music's fierce compassion flows from you*

*The night is restless with the sounds we hear
Is broken, shaken by the cries of pain:*

*For this is music's inner voice
Saying, yes, we hear you
All you who cry aloud
And we will fly, answering you:
So our lives sing, sing
Wild we will fly
Wild in spirit we will fly*

*Like a feather falling from the wing
Fragile as a human voice
Afraid, uncertain
Alive to love, we sing as love
Afraid, uncertain
Yet our flight begins as song*

Doxology Hymn 380 "Praise God from whom all blessings flow"

Communion Anthem How Can I Keep From Singing

Robert Lowry (1816-1899)

*My life flows on in endless song;
Above earth's lamentation,
I hear the real, though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation.*

Refrain

*No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging.
Since love is lord of heaven and earth, how can I keep from singing.*

*Thru all the tumult and the strife
I hear the music ringing;
It sounds an echo in my soul—
How can I keep from singing? Refrain

*What though the tempest loudly roars.
I hear the truth, it liveth,
What though the darkness round me close,
Songs in the night it giveth, Refrain

 Tips from the Ushers

- All are welcome at the altar rail for communion or a blessing.
- Ushers will release each row, starting from the back and ending with the transept.
 - Right side From the center aisle, an usher will guide you to the rail from the pulpit to the bend in the rail.
 - Left side From the center aisle, an usher will guide you from the bend in the rail along the left side of the altar.
 - Transept Please wait for usher instructions after the main church has gone forward.
- To receive communion, cup your hands for a wafer. You may drink from the chalice or dip your wafer.
- For a blessing, cross your arms over your chest.
- Afterward, please return to your pew via the side aisles for quiet prayer.

How to use your smartphone to connect to the listening system

For parishioners who use Bluetooth enabled hearing aids, we use the ListenWiFi streaming service to enhance your personal listening. Download ListenWiFi from your app store and follow the instructions at the ushers table to connect your app to the church system.

If this is your first time at St. Andrew's, Welcome!

We are happy you found us. Please use this QR code to fill out a seeker information form or check with a member of our membership committee in the narthex so that our clergy and members of our congregation can welcome you and help you get engaged with our church.

Reading and Sermon Notes

Icon of the Week

St. Michael and All Angels

The scriptural word “angel” (Greek: angelos) means, literally, a messenger. God’s messengers can be visible or invisible and may assume human or non-human forms. Christians have always felt themselves to be attended by healthful spirits—swift, powerful, and enlightening. Those beneficent spirits are often depicted in Christian art in human form, with wings to signify their swiftness and spacelessness, with swords to signify their power, and with dazzling raiment to signify their ability to enlighten. Unfortunately, this type of pictorial representation has led many to dismiss angels as “just another mythical beast, like the unicorn, the griffin, or the sphinx.” Of the many angels spoken of in the Bible, only four are called by name: Michael, Gabriel, Uriel, and Raphael. The Archangel Michael is the powerful agent of God who wards off evil from God’s people and delivers peace to them at the end of this life’s mortal struggle. The Archangel is often depicted blowing the trumpet while thrusting the spear into the mouth of the devil. “Michaelmas,” as his feast is called in England, has long been one of the popular celebrations of the Christian year. The Michaelmas daisy is a symbol for St. Michael. Just as the daisy fights against the advancing gloom of autumn and winter, St. Michael is celebrated as a protector from darkness and evil.

His feast day is September 29.

Everlasting God, you have ordained and constituted in a wonderful order the ministries of angels and mortals: mercifully grant that, as your holy angels always serve and worship you in heaven, so by your appointment they may help and defend us here on earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Pilgrimage to England June 2026

In the next few weeks, Adrian and I will send out the full itinerary and ask people to commit to our trip. We have a lot of interest in this pilgrimage, so we may generate a waiting list. There will be a day in early October when everyone can sign up. We look forward to traveling with you.

—Margaret Schwarzer

Prayer List

The prayer list has grown quite long over the summer. Consequently, at Sunday services, we will be splitting the list in half and reading one half one week, and the second half the following week. The complete prayer list will be in the e-Pistle every week. We will be doing a quarterly refreshment of the list in October. If you have a loved one on the prayer list and would like them to remain on the list, please email Adrian.

common cathedral

Please join in outreach support of common cathedral, the worship and lunch event on Boston Common which seeks to bridge the gap between unhoused and housed people. On Sunday, October 5, a group of parishioners will prepare 120 bag lunches and then travel to Boston to serve lunch and worship. We welcome everyone—kids as young as five can participate. Sign up on Realm or contact Cam McCormick at 617/584-9434.

Blessing of the Animals

Our much-loved Blessing of the Animals service will be at 5pm on Sunday, October 5. The service will take place in the church and pets and animals of all kinds are welcome! We will sing a hymn, say some prayers, and the clergy will come around and individually bless each animal. We will also give thanks for all our pets who have passed away but whose memory we still cherish.

Bible Studies

• Weekly Beginner's Bible Study

We meet on Thursdays, from noon to 1pm. In October, we will begin a series with the Acts of the Apostles. All are welcome. Join us online every Thursday.

—Adrian Robbins-Cole

- Monthly Open Bible Study resumes in October on the second Tuesday and on the second Wednesday. The dates and times for October are 11am on Tuesday, October 14, and 7pm on Wednesday, October 8. We are studying the Book of Exodus. No preparation; we read and reflect together. Join us either in the Harvey Room or on Zoom.

—Margaret Schwarzer

- Men's Bible Study We resume at 8am on Saturday, October 4. We meet the first and third Saturday of each month via Zoom. New members are welcome. It is a great group exploring the Bible from from a scholarly perspective and also discussing what the passages mean to us in our lives. —Adrian Robbins-Cole

Fall Fellowship Event— Homecoming

Come tailgate and party with your fellow St. Andrew's fans on Saturday, October 25 at 6pm in the parish hall. Show your spirit by wearing St. Andrew's colors and dance the night away as our DJ plays the hits. Sign up for this adult event by Monday, October 20 by registering on Realm or contacting Sarah Harris. Guests are welcome!

The Usher Team Needs You

If you like to attend the 8am or 10am Sunday services, please consider joining our incredible team of ushers! It's a wonderful way to serve St. Andrew's, and a great way to get to know more of your fellow parishioners. Training is quick and easy, and you are always in the company of veteran ushers who will help you learn the ropes. Contact Terri Rawson-Wakefield.

Coventry Suppers

A long-standing tradition at St. Andrew's, these casual potluck dinners are held in parishioners' homes and offer a warm, relaxed way to connect—especially for newcomers. Groups of eight to 10 people gather for simple meals and good conversation throughout the year. Sign up on Realm Connect, or by emailing membership@standrewswellesley.org and/or fellowship@standrewswellesley.org by Sunday, October 12. After sign-ups close, groups will be formed and a "first convener" assigned to host the initial gathering. Most groups meet four to six times during the year.

Join the Children's Choir!

We would love you to join us! We learn all about music, singing in choir, and our Episcopal liturgical music tradition using The Royal School of Church Music (RSCM) curriculum. Children's choir sings during our all parish Eucharists (typically on the first Sunday of the month).

We rehearse Thursday evenings from 5 to 5:45pm followed by an opportunity for food and fellowship for participants and their families. To sign up please email Benedict Hensley. • Note: We are offering this opportunity to children in grades two to six, but if you have a child outside this age range who is interested, please contact Benedict.

Soul Sisters

Our next gatherings, open to all women in the parish, will focus on a book discussion of Theo of Golden by Allen Levi. Our discussion will be led by Becky Hamlin.

- Tuesday, October 14 at 6pm
- Thursday, October 16 at 10am

Theo of Golden tells the story of a mysterious man who quietly transforms a Southern town through his gifts to strangers, sparking connection, curiosity, and community.

Name Tag Reminder!

As we return to church this fall and welcome new faces, please wear your name tag and introduce yourself to others. If you need a new name tag, contact membership@standrewswellesley.org.

Joint Luncheon with Village Church

St. Andrew's parishioners are excited to host our Village Church neighbors for a luncheon on Tuesday, October 21, at 12pm in the parish hall. (This luncheon has been a tradition between our churches since the mid-1970s!) Lunch will be provided and Sarah Robbins-Cole will be discussing the topic of Happiness and Human Connection. You can sign up to attend three ways: • on Realm, • the sheet in the narthex, and • email Ginny Snow

CityReach Overnight Service Trip

St. Andrew's CityReach overnight service trip in Boston Friday, November 21, to Saturday, November 22, for middle and high schoolers, gives them the opportunity to learn firsthand about homelessness from people who have experienced it. During the 20-hour session, participants join CityReach staff in street ministry and offer hospitality, food, and clothing. This is followed by times of sharing and reflection. Registration is $75 per participant/adult chaperone. Please register by Wednesday, October 15 on Realm.

Outreach Grant Applications

Are you involved with your favorite charity? The outreach committee is again seeking nominations from parishioners for our annual grant awards program. Grant requests may be up to $5,000 each. Look for application forms and details in the narthex, and on our website. Applications will be reviewed in late October.

Gathering of Saints and Souls

Join us Sunday, November 2, at 5pm for a sacred service of remembrance weaving together the traditions of All Hallows' Eve, All Saints, and All Souls. Through prayer, candle lighting, hymns, and the naming of the departed, we will honor the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us. Bring a photo or memory of someone you wish to honor.

At 5:45pm, we'll continue with a shared meal, during which we will learn about Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead), a tradition observed in many Latin communities. Together we will share stories, reflect on the communion of saints, and give thanks that love endures beyond death.

Fall Read: Inner Excellence

Inner Excellence—Train Your Mind for Extraordinary Performance and the Best Possible Life by Jim Murphy. New York Times bestselling author, Jim Murphy is a performance coach for some of the best athletes in the world. His Christian faith and his own experiences as an athlete and coach to the Texas Rangers generated the wisdom in this book: how to live your "best possible life." This is the book Adrian preached about in his Easter sermon. Order it online or send Margaret an email and she will order it for you for $16.99. Adrian will lead a discussion of the book in a 9am adult Christian learning class.
