Collect of the Day

Celebrant Together we pray.

People Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

First Lesson: Joel 2:23-32

O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the Lord your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the Lord, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame. Then afterward I will pour out my spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Even on the male and female slaves, in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

I will show portents in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord comes. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved; for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the Lord has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the Lord calls.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 65

David Hurd (after Gibbons)

The congregation is encouraged to sing the psalm

- 1 You are to be praised, O¹ God, in¹ Zion; *
to you shall¹ vows be per¹formed in Je¹rusalem.
- 2 To you that hear prayer shall¹ all flesh¹ come, *
be¹cause of¹ their trans¹gressions.
- 3 Our sins are¹ stronger than¹ we are, *
but¹ you will¹ blot them¹ out.
- 4 Happy are they whom you choose and draw to your¹ courts to¹ dwell there! *
they will be satisfied by the beauty of your house,
by the¹ holiness¹ of your¹ temple.

- 5 Awesome things will you show us in your righteousness,
 O God of our sal'vation, *
 O Hope of all the ends of the earth and of the seas that are far a'way.
- 6 You make fast the mountains by your power; *
 they are girded a'bout with might.
- 7 You still the roaring of the seas, *
 the roaring of their waves,
 and the clamor of the peoples.
- 8 Those who dwell at the ends of the earth will tremble at your marvelous signs; *
 you make the dawn and the dusk to sing for joy.
- 9 You visit the earth and water it abundantly;
 you make it very plenteous; *
 the river of God is full of water.
- 10 You pre'pare the grain, *
 for so you pro'vide for the earth.
- 11 You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; *
 with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.
- 12 You crown the year with your goodness, *
 and your paths overflow with plenty.
- 13 May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, *
 and the hills be clothed with joy.
- 14 May the meadows cover themselves with flocks,
 and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; *
 let them shout for joy and sing.

Second Lesson: 2 Timothy 4:6-8,16-18

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gradual Hymn 383 "Fairest Lord Jesus"

St. Elizabeth

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

Clergy The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week;

I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Clergy The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Presentation of Bread and Wine

Offertory Anthem His Eye is on the Sparrow

Charles H. Gabriel (1856-1932) lyrics, Civilla D. Martin (1866-1948)

*Why should I feel discouraged?
Why should the shadows come?
Why should my heart be lonely
And long for heav'n and home,
When Jesus is my portion?
My constant Friend is He:
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me.*

Refrain

*I sing because I'm happy —
I sing because I'm free —
For His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me.*

*"Let not your heart be troubled."
His tender word I hear,*

*And resting on His goodness,
I lose my doubt and fear.
Though by the path He leadeth,
But one step I may see:
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me. Refrain

*Whenever I am tempted,
Whenever clouds arise,
When songs give place to sighing,
When hope within me dies,
I draw the closer to Him;
From care He sets me free:
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know He watches me. Refrain

Doxology Hymn 380 "Praise God from whom all blessings flow"

Communion Anthem Live Out Thy Life Within Me Frances R. Havergal (1836-1879)
tune by Aurelia, arranged by Renese King

*Live out Thy life within me, O Jesus, King of kings!
Be Thou Thyself the answer to all my questionings;
Live out Thy life within me, in all things have Thy way!
I, the transparent medium, Thy glory to display.*

*The temple has been yielded, and purified of sin,
Let Thy Shekinah glory now shine forth from within,
And all the earth keep silence, the body henceforth be Thy silent, gentle servant, moved only as by Thee.*

*But restful, calm and pliant, from bend and bias free,
Awaiting Thy decision, when Thou hast need of me;
Live out Thy life within me, O Jesus, King of kings!
Be Thou the glorious answer to all my questionings.*

The congregation is encouraged to sing the hymn.

Icon of the Week

Mother of the Streets

An icon is not meant to be admired but is intended to be used as a prayer and meditation device. This icon, “Mother of the Streets”, also known as “Mother of God, Mother of the Streets” or “Madonna of the Streets,” is a modern interpretation of the Virgin Mary that emphasizes her role as a comforter and protector of marginalized and vulnerable individuals, particularly those living on the streets. It portrays Mary as a mother figure for those often overlooked or forgotten by society, highlighting their inherent dignity and worth as children of God.

Each year, larger numbers of homeless people live in the streets of modern cities. These people may be jobless workers, battered women, the untreated mentally ill, or simply those too poor to get by. They tend to be “invisible” to the rest of society, but they are a real presence of Christ, the Suffering Servant.

This icon depicts the mother of God as the mother of those on the streets. Her garments, and those of her Son, are covered with jewels and gold decoration, making manifest the hidden worth and dignity of street people, who are living icons of God.

Isaiah 58:7 states, Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover him?

Luke 3:10-11 states, ‘What should we do then?’ the crowd asked. John answered, ‘Whoever has two shirts must share with him who has none, and whoever has food must do the same.’

Join us on Sunday, November 2, for Modern Saints Near & Far. Join us for every class or just for the classes that interest you. Meet in person or on Zoom. —Margaret Schwarzer

Mosque Field Trip

Our field trip to the Islamic Center of Boston, the mosque in Wayland, is today, October 26. If you signed up, meet in the Harvey Room at 11:30am. We will leave at 11:45am. From 12:30pm to 2:15pm, our Muslim neighbors will teach us about their faith and share a prayer service with us. —Margaret Schwarzer

Outreach Grant Applications

Are you involved with your favorite charity? The outreach committee is again seeking nominations from parishioners for our annual grant awards program. Grant requests may be up to $5,000 each. Look for application forms and details in the narthex, and on our website. Applications will be reviewed in late October.

The Door at 79 Denton Road

We are currently installing an access pass system on the door at the administrative entrance to the church. The goal is to have the door locked with scheduled openings for services, meetings, and other gatherings. We will be issuing phone access passes to those who frequent the church for volunteer work in the building. Please email Kate if you think you need a pass, and stay tuned for more information as the work comes to completion.

Gathering of Saints and Souls

Join us Sunday, November 2, at 5pm for a family-oriented intergenerational sacred service of remembrance weaving together the traditions of All Hallows' Eve, All Saints, and All Souls. Through prayer, candle lighting, hymns, and the naming of the departed, we will honor the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us. Bring a photo or memory of someone you wish to honor.

At 5:45pm, we'll continue with a shared meal, during which we will learn about Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead), a tradition observed in many Latin communities. Together we will share stories, reflect on the communion of saints, and give thanks that love endures beyond death.

Feeding Ministry

Feeding others is often the heart of our Christian ministry. Are you interested in occasional outreach cooking efforts? Like to chat with fellow parishioners in the St. Andrew's kitchen while doing actions to benefit others? Our feeding ministry is for you! We would like to gather a list of people who would like to come together at our church occasionally to make a hot meal for one of our outreach partners. No expertise required, just willing hands! We would do this when it is convenient for us—could be evenings, weekends or weekdays. If you think you could do this ad-hoc activity, please email Cam McCormick to be added to the list. Thanks!

Soul Sisters

Our next meeting of Soul Sisters will be on Tuesday, November 11, at 6pm. This will be a social evening, with a brief program on the importance of gathering. For those who'd like to explore the theme further, the optional reading is The Art of Gathering by Priya Parker, and the optional viewing is her TED Talk, 3 Steps to Turn Everyday Get-Togethers into Transformative Gatherings.

Wellesley Turkey Trot 2025

Join our team! We trot on Thanksgiving morning at 8am! Note: When you go to race-wire.com, sign up for "join a team" and join the "St. Andrew's" team! The money we pay as a 5K registration fee will go to local charities, and we will have the chance to meet before the race, snap a picture, and wish each other a Happy Thanksgiving.

Inner Excellence

Inner Excellence, by Jim Murphy, A New York Times bestselling author, is also a performance coach. His Christian faith and his own experiences as an athlete and coach generated the wisdom in this book: how to live your "best possible life." This is the book Adrian preached about in his Easter sermon. Order it online or send Margaret an email and she will order it for you for $16.99. Adrian will lead a discussion of the book in a 9am adult Christian learning class.

College/Gap Year Care Packages

Sending college (and post-secondary school) care packages has been a long-standing tradition at St. Andrew's. Each year we send packages to 12 Wily Scholars as well as to parishioners who have graduated high school. Wily Scholars are college students who have largely grown up in the foster care system and are now in college. The Wily Network helps support these scholars so that they have all that they need to get through four years of college. Use the link in the e-Pistle to contribute needed items. Contact Joy Denomme or Sarah Robbins-Cole for more information.
